General References to the Bible in ACIM

1. The Bible is a fearful thing in the ego's judgment; ... it interprets it fearfully, T-5.VI.4:5-6
2. The Apostles often misunderstood, T-6.I.14.2, T-6.I.16:1
3. These are some of the examples of upside-down thinking in the New Testament, although its gospel is really only the message of love, T-6.I.15:1

My Feelings/Reactions Concerning the Biblical References in the ACIM

1. The magnitude of the number of Biblical references in ACIM (by one count over 800) is remarkable
2. Many Biblical references are referred to multiple times, providing multiple ways to teach the same concept with different words and in different contexts
3. Many beautiful and hopeful things in the Bible are re-emphasized and given new meaning
4. The "respect" the Course gives to the Bible and those associated with it is impressive
5. There is a lot of truth in the Bible, mixed in with untruths, wrong thinking, and wrong interpretations
6. The Course has a particular bent for those with a Christian/Biblical background
